Dear Mrs. Manley:

I realize that you have been exceedingly busy, but I understood that you were to let me know the result of your conference with the Colonel on Monday. Also, you promised to let me have three or four tickets for my secretaries and a few other people who had been of assistance in working out the details of the Opening Day.

The Mayor's invitation to the Committee calls for a reply to you, and I am very much interested in checking off those who send regrets or who fail to respond.

Sincerely yours,

Mercer
